Dear Clerk to SACRE,

Following our normal annual process, I am writing to invite SACREs to make nominations for new members of the WASACRE Executive Committee. Please would your SACRE discuss any nomination that they wish to make at their spring term SACRE meeting. Please note that if your SACRE is already represented on the Executive committee, with the exception of Secretary, Assistant Secretary and Treasurer, according to the WASACRE Constitution you will not be able to nominate a person from your own SACRE at this time.

Please find attached a proforma that should be completed and returned to me at the above email/postal address by Friday 30 March 2018. I will send to you the list of the nominations before Friday 27 April 2018, so that your SACRE is able to discuss them in their summer term meeting in time for the vote at the Association's AGM in July.

Please note there is an expectation that nominees will be available to attend executive meetings regularly should they be successful in the election at the AGM in July.

We would like to thank you and your members for your assistance in this matter.

Yours sincerely,

Paula Webber
Secretary to WASACRE

Minutes

1. Cyflwyniad a chroeso / Introduction and welcome

EE thanked the young people from the Archbishop String Quartet under the direction of Simon Grey, co-ordinator of Bridgend Music Service, for their musical performances. Members were welcomed to the Chamber by the Mayor, Pam Davies, who spoke of the importance of SACREs in monitoring standards in Religious Education. She reported that the Bridgend Summer SACRE last year had been held at the local Mosque. Schools in the authority had been offered a tour of the mosque. This played a role in supporting community cohesion. The Mayor spoke of the importance of WASACRE in acting as a forum for national issues. She highlighted the importance of getting the forthcoming changes in the curriculum for 3-16 year olds right. She informed WASACRE that Bridgend Local Authority values its work.

2. Quiet reflection. EE led a quiet reflection for Remembrance Day, including a reading of the John McCrae poem In Flanders Fields. He reflected on what we teach our children using a quotation from Pablo Casals.

3. Ymddiheuriadau / Apologies

Dafydd Trehearne, Dylan Rees, Paul Rowlinson, Sally Northcott, Libby Jones, Tania ap Sion, Enfys Hawthorne, Tudor Thomas, Janet Jones, Laura Lacey, Alwen Roberts, Cllr. Huw George, Marilyn Frazer, Andrew Pearce, Cllr. Charles Smith

It was noted that with the exception of the omission of Dylan Rees and Paul Rawlinson from the attendance list, the minutes were accepted as a true record of the meeting.

Materion yn codi / Matters arising

P3. Matters arising Item 1 – It was noted that the minutes of WASACRE were received only in English prior to SACRE meetings. This was to be discussed in an agenda item.

P.5. Managing the Right of Withdrawal from RE – the document has been designed, is bilingual and ready to go to print. A discussion ensued on whether WASACRE would purchase ISBN numbers in order to sell the document. The discussion included how the sales would be managed. The document will be available to all schools free of charge and SACRE members. Members raised concerns about enquiries to schools for partial withdrawal from RE. PW reported that the Vale of Glamorgan SACRE had also requested this information. There was a proposal that WASACRE seek information from SACREs on full or partial withdrawals and reasons given in order to build up a picture of the situation across Wales. It is to be made clear that the information requested is concerning RE only and not Collective Worship. The role of Estyn in monitoring collective worship was also discussed. VT confirmed that this had been discussed with Estyn.

Action i. GV is to purchase 10 ISBN numbers at £159 and manage the sale of the document.

Action ii. GV and PW to compose letter to send to SACREs.

P. 12 Action iii. Show and tell to be added to future agendas

5. Cyflwyniad NAPfRE / NAPfRE presentations: (Presentation slides will be made available on the WASACRE website).

i. RE in the Humanities A pioneer perspective - Catherine Rees (Head of RE Pencoed Comprehensive CR informed WASACRE that last year Y7 RE was taught in a blended curriculum based on the Humanities AoLE. Pupils guided learning. Teachers were facilitators. The aim was to develop resilient learners with transferable skills. The department was aware that the locally agreed syllabus is a statutory requirement and it informs planning. Y7 explored ultimate questions via dialogue, discussion, P4C, trips and visits and learning outside the classroom, CR reported that both staff and pupils enjoyed the learning and creativity. Tracking and assessment focused on the Four Purposes rather than levels. Pupils gave very positive feedback. They enjoyed the opportunity to look at topics from different aspects rather than just through one subject. Pupils were engaged, staff knew pupils well and work was excellent. Concerns about the lack of subject specialists were raised by parents. CR expressed concern that real progress wasn't tracked. The pupils are now in Year 8 and taught in separate subjects. Pupil Voice has shown that they now like to be taught by different teachers. CR expressed concern that they might not see the value of RS at Key Stage 4 and that the new GCSE specification did not marry with the Donaldson approach. CR suggested that the pupils in pilot had been taught by RE specialists, with a passion for the subject, and that the outcomes might have been different had this not been the case.

Questions following the presentation included:

- PL raised the issue of tracking assessment and how you ensure good progression of skills as well as concerns about planning for non-specialist teachers. CR reported that this had been difficult. She said that it may be difficult to get content covered and that might have a consequence for Year 9 as GCSE content needed to be covered there. She said that there had been lots of changes and new courses which had been a big juggling act for all teachers.
- Have you seen an attitude change towards RE? CR said Humanities always worked together, but it had been good to identify where the crossovers were.
- CR reported discerning a misconception of what RE is. CA enquired how pupils might be withdrawn from RE if they don't know what the lesson was. CR reported that this year there was no request to withdraw. She said this would be difficult, but that when teachers speak to parents they are surprised by what they are doing in humanities. The question was raised about whether we should be using the term RE? EE said that it is a problem that there is a general misconception. VT made the observation that because of the withdrawal clause RE ASF it might be lost in the new humanities curriculum. CR reported that they had not had a chance to collaborate with other schools but that it would be good to do so.
- Is the commonality between subjects a strength? CR agreed that there is as many similar topics would be taught in separate subjects, but they are now making the links.
- AL asked whether the school had been able to cover the agreed syllabus. CR reported that they had not been able to cover the same content as they would have usually. An RE day was used to cover aspects of the agreed syllabus.
- What advice would you give trainee teachers? CR raised the question of whether training in separate subjects would continue.
- SP-P noted that, when a humanities approach was used in her school, GCSE uptake became a problem. She noted a subject specific skills deficit from Y7 into Y8, and a problem with the condensing of KS3 because of the GCSE content. Due to non-specialist teaching, if they didn't have RE skills by year 8, they had to start from scratch. RT raised the issue that this approach had been tried many times in the past and had been a failure.
- MJ said that she found CR's presentation interesting and said that as they are developing at a national level, these concerns were being raised. They are now starting to look at what we should know in the disciplines. WASACRE representatives will be attending the Humanities working group on Monday 13th November to present the WASACRE Commissioned Paper.
- GV –Thanked CR. She reiterated that it was good to hear from those doing the job at this time of change. GV expressed her concern about the wellbeing of teachers as the work of teachers is frustrating and workload is immense. She reiterated that we are supposed to be aware of the wellbeing of our pupils, but what about the wellbeing of teachers?

ii. The work of the Lead Practitioners for Religious Studies. - Lisa James (CSC Cardiff High School), Catherine Rees (CCS Pencoed Comprehensive School) and Rhian Davies (EAS King Henry VIII Comprehensive School)

Lisa James and her colleague Alison Hill, led Consortium Inset supporting red and amber schools in Cardiff and the Vale, sharing resources, approaches and assessment. They included sessions on what makes effective RE lessons; a focus on the Humanist perspective; overlaps between new and old specifications; in depth understanding of religions; the sharing teaching and learning strategies; assessment, SAMs and model answers. LJ reported that her holiday had been taken up with the changes and had an impact upon workload. She prepared resources and shared them via Dropbox. She pointed out the frustration of sharing resources when others are unwilling to share. She found it beneficial to work collaboratively with CR. Together they held network and development meetings. They met with other lead practitioners from across Wales at Llandrindod Wells. Resources will be uploaded onto Hwb. It was a good experience to share the immense workload. LJ reported that not all messages were getting through to heads of department from the consortium. GV asked how many schools were involved. LJ reported that there were 8 schools involved and that they needed to be proactive in publicising the meetings as teachers might not check the consortium website. She said that it would have been useful to have had a list of names of HODS.

VT reported that Newport SACRE had written to schools requesting an expression of interest in network and development meetings. If these were held from 2-4pm it would overcome the cost implication for Inset and supply cover.

RhD reported that EAS Learning Network gave schools the opportunity to gather teachers together for support at a network meeting in June. 18 delegates attended and brought resources. The focus was on AFL. The meeting had been publicised via EAS and RS Consultants. They prepared resources for different religions, but there was no Buddhism or Sikhism. They had used the BBC Bitesize curriculum map. There will be a meeting in January to share materials and for quality assurance. Peer and self assessment marking sheets were produced. Resources for Hinduism and Christianity have been shared with Lynda Maddock at the WJEC. Eventually resources will go onto Hwb, but they are currently being shared via Google Drive.

VT asked whether resources for all the religions would be covered. RhD confirmed that they were currently trying to cover them. Additionally, that BBC Bitesize will be plugging that gap. GV asked whether the resources would cover Humanism. RhD confirmed that this would be the case and that they would also include Cwricwlwm Cwmreig. They would be publicising the next meeting heavily in order to support the schools who haven't attended. She highlighted the difficulties of getting teachers out of schools. RhD is available one day per fortnight to go out to schools to offer support. EG expressed his opinion that RE is one of the most important subjects in the school and asked whether the work would have a positive effect on people's understanding of other religions. RhD said that she is finding that students now have a better understanding of the concepts. RhD confirmed that if there is a specific request to translate the resources into Welsh then it would be. GWE paid for translation of some resources which teachers throughout Wales will be able to access on Hwb. If a school contacts RhD she will email resources.

6. Cyflwyniad WASACRE/WASACRE presentation:

i. Lynda Maddock - WJEC GCE and GCSE Religious Studies

Lynda Maddock gave Andrew Pearce's apologies to WASACRE.

Teachers began teaching the new GCSE in September. The aim was to marry the legacy Specification A, systematic study, and the Specification B, which was the popular thematic approach. It had been a difficult task. Perceptions were that the religious papers were rigorous and gave pupils the opportunity for depth. The Spec. B developed awareness of religious and social issues and engaged lots of pupils. The length of the new exam paper is longer. In Part A of the paper Christianity is compulsory. Buddhism and Hinduism are popular, as are Judaism and Islam. For Catholic Schools their second religion is Judaism. In Part B, life and death and good and evil, pupils must apply what they know from their religions. Non-religious beliefs have to be engaged with as it is explicit in the content in one longer question. Unit 1 is the short course, a foundational study and it would be difficult to look at Unit 2 without this. Questions A-C are phenomenological and Question d, analysis and evaluation, etc. This is a high order, challenging skill and worth a lot of marks. It is the differentiator. The course should be taught in 120 guided learning hours over two years minimum. Some schools are not given the time. Lynda has made Qualifications Wales aware of her concerns over this. She reported that sometimes teachers have to deliver on 1 hour per week and Lynda expressed her view that 'that is a complete disgrace'. Two religions need to be applied to philosophical issues. This will now be explicit within the assessment. In the life and death question they have to include non-religious beliefs thought they will be credited in other questions if they have written about it. WJEC CPD will be delivered in December. Lynda said that more lines had been added so that there were now 3 lines per mark. There are no expectations that the lines will be filled. She emphasised that it is always about quality and not quantity.

MP – asked a question regarding the section on origin and value of human life. In the Christianity section of the Specification it refers to Welsh Law regarding organ donation, but there is no reference to Welsh Law with regards to other religions. MP said that Welsh Government had carried out a lot of research on this and would be useful to go back to look at it. Lynda said that Welsh Government had accredited the Specification but that she would now speak to them. MP also pointed out that the statement in the textbook on organ donation is incorrect. She maintained that it is important to get the Welsh Dimension right.

A teacher representative said that the old syllabus was relevant to the pupils and asked why the decision was made to amalgamate the two Specifications. Lynda said that there was a perception that the legacy Specification B didn't have the religious rigor of the legacy Specification A. So there was an attempt to try to make the best of both worlds. One member suggested that Religious Studies had been on a high and asked what the take up for the new course is. Lynda said that they currently were only aware of preliminary entries and that the data was not accurate.

There was a discussion on Year 10 entry as there is a political feel that early entry isn't a good thing. Kirsty Williams may prevent early entry. One of the Lead Practitioners said that her school were now not entering the whole cohort.

Due to time restrictions it was decided that the A Level presentation to WASACRE would not go ahead in the absence of Andrew Pearce, but it will be put on the WJEC website for teachers to access.

ii. Kathy Riddick - Development Officer, Wales Humanists

KR gave a presentation on why SACREs should accept humanists and why WASACRE should have a humanist representative. KR referred to the Westminster Faith Debates document A New Settlement: Religion and Belief in Schools (Charles Clarke and Linda Woodhead) which stated that there has been a significant rise in a diverse range of religious and non-religious commitments. KR also made reference to the British Attitudes Survey which shows a rise in people with no religion. The Nones aged 18-14 are now over 70%. KR said that Humanists UK believe that this is missing from SACRE and that Circular 10/94, written over 20 years ago, is outdated. Humanists UK has been involved in sharing resources for RE and has worked with WJEC. It provides school speakers and is an active member of the REC. KR said that a number of SACREs in England have admitted humanist representatives as full members of group A, and humanists have served as chairs of their SACRE in England, which gives some indication of how valued their contribution is to RE in their area. Humanists are represented on the Welsh Government's strategic steering group for curriculum reform and work. She highlighted that the National Exemplar Framework for Religious Education for 3 – 19 year-olds in Wales, 2008 states very clearly that 'RE contributes to Wales, Europe and the World by raising challenging questions from religious and non-religious perspectives.' She argued that, given this, humanist representation on SACREs and WASACRE is crucial. KR raised her concern that some SACREs included Humanists in Wales, but there isn't a consistent approach. As a result Wales Humanists argue that SACREs are not servicing the teaching community. KR said that there is a view Humanists don't support RE, but the opposite is true. It is vital to continue RE. KR proposed that SACREs to have humanist members. She said that Wales Humanists have asked Welsh Government that Circular 10/94 be changed as it is discriminative. KR reported that Welsh Government have said that it is the responsibility of WASACRE.

Discussion included the following:

- A member said that a recent survey on SACREs found that co-opted members are valued. She argued that all members bring their own personalities and if you have a good member then they are good members no matter what their background. She argued that SACREs aim is supporting RE and, as that includes non-religious beliefs, it would be helpful to have Humanist representatives on SACREs.
- RT said that Circular 10/94 is a document published by the Welsh Office and that this is a matter for individual SACREs. However, that it is clear from the document that co-option is the only route for humanist membership. EE read an email from Welsh Government to Libby Jones dated 21st June 2017 stating that "From the Welsh Government perspective, the position is that the wording of section 390 of the 1996 Act is clear and refers to religion and not beliefs. Humanism is often regarded as a belief system and not a religion. As far as Welsh Government is aware, local authorities have interpreted the term "religion" so as to exclude belief systems such as humanism. However, statutory interpretation is a matter for the courts..."
- An LA faith representative said she had been nominated by her faith group to sit on SACRE and asked whether the same arrangements could be made for humanists whereby a body is represented. KR said that Wales Humanists is an organisation. They train school speakers and ensure they have an in depth knowledge of Humanism.
- One member, who is a Councillor, found it disturbing that SACREs in England ignore legislation as this could have an impact upon local councillors. He suggested the avenue for Wales Humanists is through Welsh Government.
- In discussion members considered the Equalities and Human Rights Act and the United Nations and the Rights of the Child. It was suggested that Circular 10/94 is now a defunct document and should be updated. GV said that WASACRE Executive members have offered suggested changes to document to Welsh Government officials in the past, but cannot get it updated. Members pointed out that SACREs can ask the council for constitutions to be amended so that Humanists can be invited as co-opted members. EE pointed out that where two laws conflict only the High Court or the Supreme Court can decide. He suggested that the courts need to tell us what to do as currently SACREs are restricted. He suggested that WASACRE write to ask WG to take this to the courts.
- A Member who had been co-opted onto a SACRE for many years, and who is now a full member said that being co-opted hadn't stopped him from contributing and influencing decisions. PL pointed out SACREs should be locally determined and membership should reflect the local area.
- KR said that Humanists are asking for equal treatment and that it is a general issue of respect. She said that she had visited a SACRE recently as a member of the public and felt that she had not been treated respectfully. She said that Humanism is about freedom and respect. She said that there had been no right to reply due to restrictions on members of the public attending a SACRE meeting. A WASACRE member suggested that there should never be a context for not having a right to defend yourself. Matthew Vince, a PhD student at Cardiff University, said that non-religious belief systems is one of the fastest growing areas of academic research. One member said that she felt really sorry that KR felt that she had been deliberately excluded. However, reaffirmed that this is an issue about committee A and, therefore, a Welsh Government issue. It is due for review. She said that some councils do not have co-opted positions and that if the co-opted places are filled then there is no position. KR reported that Wales Humanists has had quite a few members rejected. But that she wants to move forward. She said that they want to help to create ethically informed citizens and one way they can do that formally is through involvement in SACREs.

- GV thanked KR for coming along and for presenting and said that it was good to hear her speak supportively of Religious Education.
- PL said that WASACRE Executive members had a face to face meeting with Welsh Government during the Spring where this issue had been very strong in saying that this is not our responsibility.
- GV proposed WASACRE send a letter to Welsh Government asking them to take this matter to the courts to decide. She said that she was alarmed that someone can go to a SACRE and be treated with a lack of respect. A discussion followed on protocol of council meetings. It was felt that if someone is treated disrespectfully then they should have a right to reply. It was felt by members that SACRE meetings should be conducted in the ethos of RE and should be respectful. GV suggested that WASACRE should look at a code of conduct for SACREs. She said that people are joining a SACRE and not understanding the ethos of RE. Members of WASACRE who also sit as councillors said that members of the public have no right to reply in meetings, unless they are to be the chair to do.

ACTION: - WASACRE to send a letter to Welsh Government requesting that Circular 10/94 be updated ACTION – to set Code of Conduct as an agenda item at next meeting.

7. Darparu Ysgrifennydd Cofnodion/Provision of a Minute Secretary– Phil Lord

PL presented his research into a clerking service for minutes. He said that the usual cost is £250 per day. He suggested that this could cost £1500 per annum plus expenses. Discussion took place on the cost as well as on the role of Secretary to WASACRE. It was agreed that this is a considerable role and that it would speed up the whole process of minute writing so that minutes could be sent to SACREs quickly. The role of Secretary to WASACRE has changed and now it requires a very specific skill set. PL proposed that a clerk is appointed who will invoice WASACRE for the work they have done and for their services, he said that continuity is needed so the appointee would need to be aware of the specialist language of RE. This was seconded by RT.

ACTION: Write to SACREs to seek those interested in the role of Minutes Clerk

8. Cyfarfod Cymdeithas CYSAGau Cymru Cyfansoddiad / Wales Association of SACREs Constitution.

This item was adjourned to the next meeting.

9. Diweddariadau/Up-dates:

i. Materion Llywodraeth Cymru / Welsh Government matters – New Curriculum update - RE in the Humanities AoLE - Manon Jones

Welsh Government (has) published changes to the key dates

(<http://gov.wales/topics/educationandskills/schoolshome/curriculuminwales/curriculum-for-wales-curriculum-for-life/?lang=en>). By April 2018 there will be a draft of the new curriculum and by January 2020 the final curriculum and assessment arrangements will be published, to be implemented in 2022. Initially it will be taught in Primary and Year 7. There will be an additional four year period of studying to new curriculum and new qualification. Currently, Welsh Government is asking how humanities supports the new curriculum. How should humanities look and appear? What is the level of specificity and consistency between schools? There will be a summary from the Pioneer Schools in July. SACRE meetings in the Autumn term should have discussed the letter from Welsh Government, which is very aware that we do not want to lose anything from RE. There has been a concentration upon the disciplines and they will make links between them, however some aspects may have to be stand alone. Welsh Government has been working with WASACRE and the commissioned a paper. Colleagues from WG are aware of the importance of the right to withdraw from RE. Welsh Government will feed back to SACRES by January 2018. Manon Jones was asked when we could expect to see ‘meat on the bones’ of the curriculum. The strands will be worked on at the end of next month, but by March or April there will be more in depth feedback. Manon sees the importance of communication at different levels of the development process, as well as ensuring practitioners in Pioneer Schools are informed. She agreed that she also needed to consider those who are not in pioneer schools.

- ii. GV informed the meeting that a group of WASACRE members had drawn up a paper on What Matters in RE and that this is to be presented at the Humanities Planning Workshops on Monday 13th November in Swansea.

10. Adroddiad ar gyfarfod y Pwyllgor Gwaith a gynhaliwyd ar 13 Medi 2017/ Report from the Executive Committee held on 13 September 2017

Item 4. GV gave an update on the REC who have commissioned a report on RE across England. We have a right to respond to it by 4th December. GV sought the views of members on whether Wales could have a similar commission. The CoRE in England contains information that is important for us in Wales. GV spoke to Rudi Lockhart about a similar review in Wales. Gill asked whether WASACRE is able to support two delegates in attending the NASACRE/ARIEAC Conference on the CoRE.

ACTION: the Executive Committee to communicate via email and respond to the report.

ACTION: Invite Rudi Lockhart to the next meeting of the WASACRE Executive

11. Gohebiaeth /Correspondence

WASACRE received the following correspondence:

- i. Matthew Vince, from the Centre for the Study of Islam in the UK at Cardiff University which explores the lives of Muslim communities living in Britain, wrote to WASACRE and was present at the meeting. He was invited to speak to members about his research into the experiences of Muslim RE teachers in secondary schools. The Centre has set up a Future Learn course which is free to teachers. The centre offers CPD to RE teachers and will visit schools to facilitate workshops. There are also other free events and public lectures available. The Centre is interested in developing materials for a course suitable for KS3/4 pupils, which will be accessible to teachers across South Wales.
- ii. Dr Wendy Dossett informed WASACRE that the University of Chester will be holding a ‘back to university day’ for teachers on Religion and Ethics on Saturday 10th February, 2018.
- iii. The Interfaith Network notified WASACRE that Mr. Jagwan Singh, IFN Vice Chair 2001-2004, has sadly passed away.

12. U.F.A. / A.O.B.

There was no other business.

EE closed the meeting and thanked the Mayor Pam Davies; Vicky Thomas; Ellen Franks, Clerk to Bridgend SACRE and members of Bridgend SACRE; the Archbishop String Quartet, Simon Grey, and the interpreter, Stephen Williams.

13. Dyddiad y cyfarfod nesaf Dydd Gwener 10 Tachwedd, 2017 / Date for next meeting:

- i. Spring 2018 – Swansea, Friday 9 March 2018
- ii. Summer 2018 – Anglesey
