

Political Balance Position at January 2014

The tables below summarise the position for each of the committees. The third column headed Political Balance shows the actual number of seats each Group is entitled to have on the committee.

Changes to committee memberships can occur at any time and the Groups are encouraged to ensure that each committee has a full contingent of members throughout the year. A general review of the political balance of the committees is undertaken annually to re-balance committees for the start of the new municipal year in May. This year the Annual Meeting of Council falls on the 13 May and will include the withdrawal of the 2014 / 15 Vice Chair of Council from his / her membership of most committees owing to the non-political roles the Chair and Vice Chair of Council undertake.

Comments: The political balance requirements have been achieved for the groups participating in the executive. In the event of a political group with 5 or more members declining to take up their seats on the Cabinet the Leader may appoint councillors to fill the vacancies and the rules of political balance do not apply to the filling of those vacancies. No further actions required. *With 8 members each both the Conservative and Plaid Cymru Groups have the same political balance weighting, so in respect of political balance, either could take a second seat on the committee.

If the new Vice Chair of the Council is not drawn from the Labour Group, Labour will be entitled to appoint 1 new member, and the new Vice Chair of Council will take one of his or her group's allocation of seats on the committee. Actions: (i) Refer back to relevant group leaders following the identification of the new Vice Chair of Council.
