

Annual Report

of

Denbighshire
Standing Advisory Council
for Religious Education

2013 - 2014

Foreword

The Role of the Standing Advisory Council for Religious Education:

The principal roles of SACRE are:

- Advising the Local Authority on matters to do with Religious Education and collective worship, or Spiritual and Moral Development;
- Consider applications from Headteachers that their school be released from the statutory requirements for Collective Worship to be wholly or mainly of a broadly Christian character (such applications are known as 'Determinations');
- Require a Local Authority to review its Agreed Syllabus;
- Monitor the provision of RE, collective worship and spiritual, moral, social and cultural development in the schools of the Local Authority;
- Give advice on teacher agreed syllabus RE, including the choice of teacher materials;
- Advising the Local Authority on the provision of training for teachers (in RE);
- Considering complaints about the provision and delivery of RE and collective worship made to the Local Authority.
- To publish an Annual Report on its work.

The Composition of SACRE:

The statutory requirements for the setting up of SACREs require three committees of members:

- Representatives of Christian denominations or other religions and their denominations reflecting the principal religious traditions of the locality;
- Teacher representatives;
- County Council representatives.

There is also the right to co-opt members.

The Annual Report

2. Advice Given to the Local Authority

(a) Religious Education:

i. The Agreed Syllabus

Denbighshire SACRE adopted the 'National Exemplar Framework for Religious Education for 3-19 year olds' as the Locally Agreed Syllabus for Denbighshire in 2008. The framework continues to be the basis of the Agreed Syllabus in Denbighshire. The Agreed Syllabus will be reviewed once the findings of the curriculum review are published.

A SACRE's main function is '...to advise the authority upon such matters connected with religious worship in county schools and the religious education to be given in accordance with an agreed syllabus as the authority may refer to the council or as the council may see fit.' Education Reform Act 1988 s.11 (1) (a)

No advice or training has been given on the Agreed Syllabus in the current academic year although many schools had adopted the planning from the 'Comprehensive Guide to RE' and 'RE in the foundation Phase', documents which were designed to complement the Denbighshire Agreed Syllabus.

ii. Standards

Examination results

The SACRE received details of the examination results for 2013

The full course results were 5.8% above the national average, 78.8% compared to 73.6%, 5.6% below last year's LA results.

The short course GCSE results were below national trends, the overall A*-C was 35.2%, 15.4% below the national results for all candidates, an increase of 20.4% on last years' local figures.

For Advanced Level, the overall A* – C rate was 91.2%, some 10.2% above the national average and 9.5% increase on last years' local figures.

Inspection Reports

Due to the current Estyn inspection framework there are no subject judgments in the Estyn reports. Instead, members receive information from the reports relating to Estyn's comments of a schools provision of SMSC. See part c Collective Worship - Monitoring provision - Inspection reports

b. Methods of teaching

The SACRE and LA have previously provided comprehensive documents and materials in support of the Agreed Syllabus, and these contain advice on methods of teaching and delivery of RE.

INSET sessions have been conducted as a part of the criteria in the Better Schools Fund in terms of meeting the requirements of the revised school curriculum. These sessions have been well attended and found useful and informative by schools.

Choosing teaching resources

The SACRE has not formally advised schools in the matter of purchasing teaching resources, deeming this to be a matter for the schools themselves.

Provision of Initial Teacher Training

It had not been possible during the year to make a visit to or receive a visit from an Initial Teacher Training Institute.

c) Collective Worship

Monitoring provision

Inspection Reports

As part of the process of monitoring, Estyn Inspection Reports are analysed in terms of collective worship, spiritual, moral, social and cultural development (SMSC). These are compiled and noted by SACRE. Letters are sent to schools following the consideration of them in SACRE, commending good practice and offering support as may be necessary.

Over the year 5 schools' inspection reports were analysed as follows:

Positive Comments in overall judgements	No of schools
Current performance	1
Prospects for improvement

Positive Comments in quality indicators:	No of schools
Key Question 1: How good is outcomes?
Standards	3
Wellbeing	3
Key Question 2: How good is provision?
Learning Experiences	5
Care support and guidance	5
Learning Environment	3
Key Question 3: How good is leadership and management?
Partnership working	2

Negative Comments	No of schools
	0

iii) Guidance Documents

Guidance documents created in previous years continue to be available to schools including 'A Comprehensive Guide to RE' and 'RE in the Foundation Phase'

iv) Resources recommended

The guidance documents referred to above contain references to resources valued and recommended or evaluated by serving teachers. In addition, advice is offered in response to specific requests. Also schools are informed of resources through the RE News which is available to all schools electronically, they also have access to the Welsh National Centre for RE resources at Bangor University and also the St Mary's Centre for RE.

Self-evaluation materials have been promoted and are available on the REQM website.

v) INSET for Collective Worship

No inset has been provided for Collective Worship in the current academic year.

vi) Evaluation of the effectiveness of guidance

No formal evaluation of the original guidance material has been undertaken, but responses from schools to the materials, and comments offered through school visits have indicated how much the schools have valued the materials and used them in planning and enhancing their provision.

vii) Determinations

No Determinations have been made.

3) Other Matters

a) Local

SACRE has discussed how to improve the attendance from members of the teaching profession as well as how to monitor the standards of schools in light of the changes to the ESTYN framework and the changes within the LA school improvement service. This will continue to be an agenda item in the next academic year. Members have also discussed various initiatives to support and promote community relations between school and local faith communities.

b) National

Members received a report by the Westminster All Party Parliamentary Group on RE titled 'RE and good community relations' highlighting the good work undertaken by departments to promote community relations. Discussions followed on how Denbighshire SACRE could support and promote good community relations between faith groups and its local schools.

The Religious Education quality mark was presented both within local SACRE and national WASACRE meetings. Members were informed of schools opportunity to both apply for the award as well as use the materials that are freely available on the REQM website. The materials are available in both English and Welsh. Materials created for England have been adapted and trialled to reflect the Welsh education system.

(i) Estyn:

Inspection Reports on schools were received and analysed, as reported.

Members continue to discuss the changes to the inspection framework and the impact this has had on SACRE's ability to monitor RE and Collective Worship in schools.

(ii) DFES:

The SACRE has been informed of developments and initiatives undertaken by or through the Department for Children, Education, Lifelong Learning and Skills. The Agreed Syllabus Conference has been postponed until DFES publishes its planned changes to the curriculum. WASACRE has met with Professor Donaldson to discuss RE's place in the current curriculum.

SACRE received a transcript of a speech given by Huw Lewis to the Religious Education Council for England and Wales' AGM in Cardiff 7th May 2014.

(iii) WASACRE

Members of SACRE and the LA were represented at all the meetings of WASACRE, and received some of the presentations that had been made. SACRE continued to receive reports from representatives attending the meetings of the Association, and also receiving of minutes and papers from WASACRE.

(iv) Complaints

No complaints were received by the SACRE.
