

APPENDIX 2

Respondent	District / Station	Comments
Councillor Ann Davies	Rhuddlan community centre	The community centre in Rhuddlan is always used, it's very central for residents and has disability access , with toilets and kitchen for staff.
Councillor Stuart Davies	Llangollen	To keep the current polling station arrangements
Councillor Merick Lloyd Davies	Cefn Meiriadog & Trefnant	The Cefn Meiriadog and Trefnant polling stations are satisfactory.
Denbigh Town Council	Denbigh Central Ward	Denbigh Town Council expressed concerns that there was no polling station in the Central ward for the electors living in the lower half of Vale Street / Townsend, and the distance involved from that area of Denbigh to the Eirianfa Centre in Factory ward.
Dyserth Community Council	Dyserth / Paterson Hall	Dyserth Community Council members agreed that the premises (Paterson Hall, Dyserth) are suitable for future use as a polling station.
Councillor Martyn Holland	Llanrmon yn Iâl / Llandegla	After reviewing the list of polling stations in my ward I believe they should stay as they are. They are all relatively central and accessible to all sections of society
Rhuddlan Town Council	Rhuddlan	Rhuddlan Town Council discussed the Review and advised that it was happy with the current arrangements
Councillor Cefyn Williams	Cynwyd & Llandrillo	Supports the current polling station arrangements for Cynwyd and Llandrillo