Priorities for the Year Ahead:

To continue effectively representing the residents of my ward. As a member of the Cabinet I have had responsibilities for a wide range of the Council's activities including Customer Services and Housing which I have endeavoured to give my best attention and am particularly pleased at the achieving of Welsh Housing Quality Status for our properties. I have now handed this responsibility to Cllr Barbara Smith and accepted the brief for the library service and look forward to progressing our service including the development of a new site in Corwen and the relocation of the Rhyl One Stop Shop into the Rhyl Library. I still retain responsibility for tackling poverty and homelessness and I propose to ensure that the adoption of new government requirements, as well as our latest strategies in these areas, is implemented effectively. Denbighshire has been requested to host the 2016 North Wales Armed Forces Open Day and, as Armed Forces Champion, I will be at the forefront of the plans for this prestigious occasion. I also propose to give my best efforts to the implementation of the provisions of the Armed Forces Covenant as far as it affects Veterans in Denbighshire.
