

Progress with Committee Resolutions

Date of Meeting	Item number and title	Resolution	Progress
14 December 2017	5. Conwy & Denbighshire Public Services Board's Wellbeing Plan 2018-2022	Resolved: (i) subject to the above observations, to receive and support the report and the Conwy and Denbighshire Public Services Board's (PSB) Well-being Plan 2018-2023; (ii) that in response to the consultation questions it wished to inform the Board that it: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• wholeheartedly agreed and supported the Well-being Priorities the Public Service Board (PSB) was attempting to achieve;</li> <li>• was of the view that the strength in the combined power of the Public Services Board (PSB) to make a difference lay in effective collaboration, pooling of resources, and communication between all partners and residents to drive forward a prevention/early intervention strategy with a view to mitigating problems from escalating to more complex and intensive ones in future;</li> </ul>	The Committee's observations in response to the consultation were forwarded to the Lead Member and to relevant officers in Denbighshire and Conwy. They were presented to the Public Services Board when it considered the consultation responses and appended to the report presented to full Council in Denbighshire when it considered approving and adopting the Wellbeing Plan on 20 February 2018

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• was of the view that, initially, the Board should focus on the 'Supporting the First 1,000 Days of Life' and 'Raising Resilient and Aspirational Young People' (including all children of school age) priorities;</li><li>• was not of the view that anything in the draft plan required to be changed;</li><li>• was of the view that no major elements had been omitted from the Plan, but it would be strengthened further if the importance of leading healthy lifestyles (including the dangers of tobacco and substance misuse, the benefits of active travel etc.), the need for affordable leisure facilities for all, and an objective of encouraging medical practitioners to 'prescribe' leisure and social interest as a way of improving health and well-being were explicitly referenced within it;</li><li>• felt that effective regular communication about the Plan and the Board's work would be key in order to continually engage residents and realise the Plan's delivery; and</li><li>• was of the view that effective scrutiny of the Council's Corporate Plan and the work of the Public Services Board</li></ul>
