Conwy Charter

Background to the Report:

A proposal by the Quakers in Denbighshire to implement the 2018 Conwy County Peace Charter on the reduction of the militarisation of children and young people.

North Wales has a long history of campaigning for Peace. Notable Welsh campaigners for Peace include Henry Richard, Gwynfor Evans, Lewis Valentine. In the 1920's following the First World War North Wales women inspired and led Peace marches to Westminster.

Purpose of the Report:

For members to consider the Quakers in Denbighshire Peace Charter and its appropriateness for use with schools.

Recommendations:

That the SACRE considers recommending that schools in Denbighshire adopt the Quakers in Denbighshire Peace Charter.

For members to consider that all the statements within the charter are appropriate for schools to adopt.
