

Appendix 8 – Power to make the decision

Section 2, Local Government Act 2000 - the power to do anything which DCC consider is likely to achieve the promotion or improvement of the environmental well-being of their area.

Section 111, Local Government Act 1972- the power to do anything which is conducive to, or calculated to facilitate, the discharge of the Council's functions.

Section 13.2, DCC Constitution - All decisions of the Council will be made in accordance with the following principles: 13.2.8 having regard to tackling climate and ecological change.