Title	Temporary appointment of members to Community Councils

1. What is the report about?

1.1. The report is about the temporary appointment of members to Bodfari Community Council and Cynwyd Community Council ('the Community Councils')

2. What is the reason for making this report?

2.1. Both of the Community Councils have an insufficient number of members following the recent local government elections for them to be able to lawfully act and make decisions. The County Council has the power to make temporary appointments to the Community Councils to enable them to act lawfully.

3. What are the Recommendations?

3.1. That Council authorise the making of an Order pursuant to s91 Local Government Act 1972 for the temporary appointment of Councillor Chris Evans to Bodfari Community Council to enable that Council to act lawfully on the terms set out in the draft order attached as Appendix 1 to this report.

3.2. That Council authorise the making of an Order pursuant to s91 Local Government Act 1972 for the temporary appointment of Councillors Gwyneth Ellis and Alan Hughes to Cynwyd Community Council to enable that Council to act lawfully on the terms set out in the draft order attached as Appendix 2 to this report.

4. Report details

- 4.1. s91 Local Government Act 1972 provides that where there are so many vacancies on a town or community council that it cannot lawfully act, a county council may, by order, appoint persons to fill all or any of the vacancies until other councillors are elected or co-opted and take office.
- 4.2. The Bodfari Community Council consists of 7 seats. The quorum for the Community Council to be able to act lawfully is 3.
- 4.3. In the recent local government elections, there were 2 nominations received by the close of nominations. There was no need for a contest given that the number of those nominated was less than the number of available seats. The two nominees were duly elected. This means that the Community Council has a membership of 2 and cannot therefore lawfully act or take decisions.
- 4.4. It is therefore proposed that Councillor Chris Evans, as the local member, be appointed to sit on the Bodfari Community Council on a temporary basis in order that the process of co-option may proceed and additional members can be appointed.
- 4.5. Cynwyd Community Council consists of 9 seats. The quorum for the Community Council to act lawfully is 3.
- 4.6. In the recent local government elections, there was only one nomination received by the close of nominations. There was no need for a contest given that the number of those nominated was less than the number of available seats. The one nominee was duly elected. This means that the Community Council has only one member and cannot act lawfully or take decisions.
- 4.7. It is therefore proposed that County Councillors Gwyneth Ellis and Alan Hughes, as the local members, be appointed to sit on the Cynwyd Community Council on a temporary basis in order that the process of co-option may proceed and additional members can be appointed.
