

Denbighshire schools engagement overview

Number of Denbighshire primary schools on course to implement curriculum reform by September 2022	44 (100%)	Number of Denbighshire secondary, straight through and special schools on course to implement curriculum reform by September 2023	7 (70%)
Engagement of all Denbighshire schools with professional learning	Denbighshire schools attending leadership sessions: 70%	Bespoke support and use of asynchronous resources and professional learning by Denbighshire schools: 100%
Regional SLT attendance: at workshops	Curriculum design - 504 Primary, 101 Secondary, Special & PRU Assessment and Progression - 620 Primary, 141 secondary, Special & PRU Principles of Planning - 499 Primary, 95 Secondary, Special & PRU Enabling Learning - 362 Primary		Attendance and engagement from Denbighshire senior leaders was strong (70%)
Regional middle leadership attendance at workshops:	Understanding Curriculum for Wales framework – Session 1 ‘Unpacking the Areas of Learning and Experience’ <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Primary - 237</li> <li>• Secondary – Language, Literacy and Communication – 110</li> <li>• Secondary – Maths &amp; Numeracy - 48</li> <li>• Secondary – Science &amp; Technology- 54</li> <li>• Secondary – Humanities - 48</li> <li>• Secondary – Health &amp; Wellbeing – 43</li> <li>• Secondary – Expressive Arts – 36</li> </ul>		Attendance and engagement from Denbighshire middle leaders was strong