Foreword

All members of Council staff are expected to conform with the Welsh Language Standards which derive from the Welsh Language (Wales) Measure 2011, and this policy offers further guidance about the Standards.

The Welsh Language Standards aim to make it easier for people in Wales to use Welsh as part of their everyday lives. This policy notes how the Council intends to implement that principle when providing services to the public in Wales, and also internally for staff.

The Council is proud of the Welsh culture of the area and the fact that it is a bilingual Council. Many of Conwy's residents speak Welsh, and many staff members speak Welsh as well. For that reason, the Council is committed to promote Welsh in the workplace. This not only ensures that all Council offices are bilingual locations, which provides staff with the opportunity to use their Welsh language skills, but also, it facilitates offering a bilingual provision to our customers as well.

There are four main parts to this policy, in accordance with the sections of the Welsh Language Standards, namely Service Delivery, Policy Making, Operation and Promotion. The number of each Standard can be seen next to each point, for reference. Further information about the contents of each section can be seen in the contents page above.

Managers

There are some additional duties for managers which are included in the Standards – these can be seen under the relevant titles in the policy in Section C, point 20. They include elements such as asking new employees about their language of choice, in which language would they like to receive their contract etc.

Need further assistance with the policy?

If you'd like further advice or assistance with this policy, please feel free to contact either Eluned Mair Davies, Welsh Language Promotion and Development Officer (eluned.mair.davies@conwy.gov.uk) or Nia Llwyd, Welsh Language & Translation Service Manager (nia.llwyd@conwy.gov.uk). Further information can also be seen on our intranet site Translation & Welsh Language Support.

Translation Service

The Translation Service is always available to help you with translating any document, to proofread documents or to provide a simultaneous translation service in meetings or interviews. Further information about the services we provide can be seen on our intranet (link above).

Welsh Promotion Officers

There is a Welsh Promotion Officer in each service. The main purpose of the Welsh Promotion Officers is to share information about e.g. the Welsh Language Standards, opportunities to learn Welsh etc with staff.

Reviewing the Policy

This policy will be reviewed every year, as needed.

Section A - Service Delivery Standards

1. Correspondence

The Council welcomes correspondence in both Welsh and English. The Translation Service (cyfieithu@conwy.gov.uk) can assist with translating or checking any text before it is sent to the public/staff.

- 1.1 If you receive correspondence (a letter/e-mail etc) from someone in Welsh you must reply in Welsh. (Standard 1).
- 1.2 If you speak Welsh and contact other individuals who speak Welsh in regards to your everyday work, you're encouraged to do so in Welsh.

Internal

If you write to another member of staff on an official basis, you'll need to check what their language of choice is and write to them in their language of choice at all times.

External

When you write to an individual (not a member of staff) for the first time, you must ask them if they wish to receive the letter / e-mail / information from you in Welsh. If they respond to say that they wish to receive correspondence in Welsh then you must:

- (a) keep a record of their wish
- (b) correspond with the individual in Welsh from then onwards, and
- (c) send any forms from then onwards in Welsh.

If you don't know their language of choice, you should send the correspondence bilingually. (Standard 2)

- 1.3 When you send correspondence addressed to two individuals who live in the same household (for example, the parents of a child) for the first time, you must ask them whether they wish to receive correspondence from you in Welsh; and if:
  - (a) both individuals respond to say that they wish to receive correspondence in Welsh, you must keep a record of that wish and correspond in Welsh from then onwards;
  - (b) one (but not both) of the individuals respond to say that he/she wishes to receive correspondence in Welsh, you must keep a record of that wish and provide a Welsh language version of correspondence from then onwards when sending correspondence addressed to both of those individuals.(Standard 3)
- 1.4 When you send the same correspondence to several people (e.g. everyone who lives on an estate in Abergele), you must send a Welsh language version of the correspondence at the same time as you send an English language version. (Standard 4)

- 1.5 If you don't know whether someone wishes to receive correspondence from you in Welsh, when you correspond with that person you must provide a Welsh language version of the correspondence.
(Standard 5)
- 1.6 If you produce a Welsh language version and a corresponding English language version of correspondence, you must ensure that the same information is included on both versions (date, reference, address etc). You must ensure that both the Welsh and English versions are signed too.
(Standard 6)
- 1.7 The following sentence needs to be included on all correspondence, publications and official notices. You'll see that this message is already an automatic part of each e-mail message that leaves your account.
(Standard 7)

Rydym yn croesawu gohebiaeth yn y Gymraeg a'r Saesneg fel ei gilydd. Ni fydd gohebiaeth yn yr un iaith na'r llall yn arwain at unrhyw oedi. / We welcome correspondence in both Welsh and English. We will respond to correspondence in either language without delay.

- 1.8 E-mail messages/Letters/Postmaster messages/Newsletters - Any mass communication intended for every member of Council staff / a group of staff / a whole service etc sent by e-mail messages / letters / Postmaster messages / Newsletters etc will be sent in Welsh and in English at the same time, unless you know that all those members of staff's language of choice is either Welsh or English. When sending any kind of bilingual communication, the Welsh text must be placed above the English text.
(Standard 98)
- 1.9 'Out of Office' messages – All members of staff's 'out of office' message must be bilingual with the Welsh text placed before the English text. You need to ensure that the information you provide is entirely bilingual, e.g.

Nid wyf yn y swyddfa ar hyn o bryd / I'm not in the office at the moment.

If you'd like assistance to translate your out of office message, please feel free to contact the Translation Service (cyfieithu@conwy.gov.uk).

(Standard 135)

- 1.10 E-mail Signature – the signature of your e-mail messages must be bilingual, and set out as below:

[Full Name]
[Job Title in Welsh/Job Title in English]
[Name of the Unit/Dept. in Welsh / Name of the Unit/Dept. in English]
[Name of the Service in Welsh / Name of the Service in English]
Cyngor Bwrdeistref Sirol CONWY County Borough Council
[e-mail.address]@conwy.gov.uk
Ffôn/Phone: 01492 57[xxxx]

Fluent Welsh speakers – All members of staff who speak Welsh fluently should insert this image at the bottom of their e-mail signature to let customers and colleagues know that they can correspond in Welsh:

Learners – Also, members of staff who are learning Welsh can use this image at the bottom of their e-mail signature to let customers and colleagues know that they are learning Welsh:

You can download both images from the Translation & Welsh Language Service's intranet site or contact the Translation & Welsh Language Service for a copy. (Standard 134)

- 1.11 Generic e-mail addresses will be given a separate Welsh and English address from the outset. Also, the name used on the generic e-mail address will be bilingual. For example:

Display name: Cyfieithu/Translation

E-mail Address: cyfieithu@conwy.gov.uk / translation@conwy.gov.uk

It is also possible to have a bilingual e-mail address as well, e.g. cyfieithu.translation@conwy.gov.uk
(Standard 134 and 135)

2. Making / Answering Phone Calls

2.1 Your telephone greeting must be completely bilingual (this applies to internal and external telephone calls. (Standards 8, 9 and 20))

2.2 Here's an example of the wording to use:

Bore da, Cyngor Bwrdeistref Sirol Conwy
Good morning, Conwy County Borough Council

Pnawn da, Cyngor Bwrdeistref Sirol Conwy
Good afternoon, Conwy County Borough Council

Obviously, you can exchange “Cyngor Bwrdeistref Sirol Conwy”/ “Conwy County Borough Council” in the examples above with the bilingual name of your Service or Section – the important thing to remember is that the greeting must be completely bilingual.

2.3 When an individual contacts you over the phone and speaks Welsh with you, you must deal with the phone call in Welsh at all times.

It isn't acceptable to ask them to turn to English if you don't understand Welsh.

If you don't understand Welsh, you may explain courteously that you can't speak Welsh and transfer the phone call to a member of staff who can deal with the call in Welsh. (Standard 10 and 19)

2.4 The telephone number for the Welsh language service must always be the same as for the corresponding English language service. I.e. you can't use one number for the Welsh language service and another number for the English language service. A service which asks the caller to press 1 for Welsh and 2 for English is acceptable. (Standard 13)

2.5 When you publish any telephone numbers, e.g. on a website, on the side of a van etc, on an information sheet etc, you must state that you welcome calls in Welsh and English.

Something as simple as:

	Rydym yn croesawu galwadau yn Gymraeg ac yn Saesneg We welcome calls in Welsh and English

(Standard 14)

- 2.6 When you telephone someone for the first time you must ask that individual whether he/she wishes to receive telephone calls from you in Welsh, and if he/she responds to say that he/she wishes to receive telephone calls in Welsh you must keep a record of that wish, and conduct telephone calls made to that individual in Welsh from then onwards. If you don't speak Welsh, you'll need to ask a co-worker to deal with the call on your behalf at all times. (Standard 21)
- 2.7 If you arrange an automated telephone system to answer any phone calls made to the Council, then you must provide the complete automated service in Welsh and in English, and you must ensure that the Welsh message is heard first. (Standard 22)
- 2.8 Messages on answer machines – All messages on answer machines should be entirely bilingual and the Welsh greeting heard before the English greeting. This includes your personal voicemail through Skype as well as the voice greeting on the main phone number and on mobile phones. If you don't speak Welsh, you're welcome to ask a fluent Welsh speaking co-worker to record your message. If you have technical difficulties setting your out of office message, bilingual signature or answer machine message – please contact the IT Service Desk. (Standard 16)

3. Arranging Meetings / Inviting people to meetings

If you need to arrange simultaneous translation at a meeting which is held on-line, that meeting will have to be held on Zoom at the moment, as there isn't a simultaneous translation facility on Microsoft Teams. We will revise this requirement if there is a change in the on-line provision.

Public Meetings

At all public meetings, public inquiries and hearings held by the Council, those attending will be welcome to contribute in Welsh or English or bilingually. In order to facilitate the holding of bilingual meetings, the Council will provide a simultaneous translation service at such meetings and at the beginning of all such meetings those attending will be welcomed and informed that they will be welcome to speak in their preferred language.

Individual needs will be addressed in terms of reasonable modifications upon request.

The only exception to the above provision will be meetings at which it is known for certain beforehand that there will be no need for a translator either:

- (a) because everyone present understands Welsh; or
- (b) because everyone present is a non-Welsh speaker; or
- (c) it is known that Welsh only or English only is the preferred language of everyone present.

- 3.1 If you invite an individual to a meeting you must ask that individual whether he/she wishes to speak Welsh at the meeting, and inform that individual that you will, if necessary, provide a translation service from Welsh to English for that purpose. (Standard 24)

- 3.2 If you have invited one person only to a meeting and he/she has informed you that he/she wishes to speak Welsh at the meeting, you must arrange for a simultaneous translation service from Welsh to English to be available at the meeting (unless you conduct the meeting in Welsh without the assistance of a translation service).
(Standard 24A)

You can arrange for a translator to be present at your meeting to provide a simultaneous translation service by contacting the Translation Service on ext. 6081/6082/6080 or by sending an e-mail to cyfieithu@conwy.gov.uk.

- 3.3a If you invite more than one person to a meeting, you must ask each person whether he/she wishes to speak Welsh at the meeting. (Standard 27)

- 3.3b If you have invited more than one person to a meeting, and that at least one person invited has informed you that he/she wishes to speak Welsh, you must arrange for a simultaneous translation service from Welsh to English to be available at the meeting. (Standard 27A)

You can arrange for a translator to provide a simultaneous translation service at your meeting by contacting the Translation Service on 6081/6082/6080 or by sending an e-mail to cyfieithu@conwy.gov.uk.

- 3.4 If you arrange a meeting that is open to the public, you must state on any material advertising it (such as the agenda etc), and on any invitation to it, that anyone attending is welcome to speak Welsh at the meeting.
(Standard 30)

- 3.5 When you send invitations to a meeting that you arrange which is open to the public, you must send the invitations in Welsh and in English at the same time.
(Standard 31)

- 3.6 If you invite people to speak at a meeting that you arrange, which is open to the public, you must ask each person invited to speak whether he/she wishes to speak Welsh, and if that person has informed you that he/she wishes to speak Welsh, you must arrange a simultaneous translation service from Welsh to English. (Standard 32)

You can arrange for a translator to provide a simultaneous translation service at your meeting by contacting the Translation Service on 6081/6082/6080 or by sending an e-mail to cyfieithu@conwy.gov.uk.

- 3.7 If you arrange a meeting that is open to the public, you must ensure that a simultaneous translation service from Welsh to English is available at the meeting, and the Chair must inform those present:

- (a) that they are welcome to speak Welsh, and
- (b) that a simultaneous translation service is available.

(Standard 33)

- 3.8 Agendas and Minutes: All Agendas and Minutes of meetings of the Council, the Cabinet, and associated committees shall be available to the public in the language of their choice (Welsh or English) or both.
(Standard 34)

3.9 Reports: All reports prepared by officers or agents of the Council for presentation to a meeting of the Council, Cabinet, and its associated committees shall be available to the public in Welsh or English at the same time. Whenever officers of the Council arrange for a report to be prepared by outside agents for presentation to the Council or to a meeting of the Cabinet, or associated committees part of those arrangements will stipulate that such reports will be presented to the meeting in both languages.
(Standard 34)

3.10 If you display any written material at a public meeting e.g. a PowerPoint presentation, you must ensure that the material is displayed in Welsh and English, and you must not treat any Welsh language text less favourably than the English language text (both have to be the same size, and as easily seen as the other version).
(Standard 34)

Other meetings with the public

3.11 At face-to-face meetings with Council officers or Council representatives, the public will be welcome to communicate in Welsh or English. If the relevant officer is unable to speak Welsh, another Welsh-speaking officer will be provided to facilitate communication. If it isn't possible to arrange for another Welsh speaking officer to facilitate communication, e.g. if a specialist role holder doesn't speak Welsh, then it is possible to arrange that meetings are held via simultaneous translation if no other option is available.

The Services' strategies for meeting the requirements to conduct meetings in both languages will include:

- (a) allocating an appropriate number of bilingual staff to those workplaces where the public are frequently in communication with the Council (e.g. reception areas, advice offices, libraries, service counters, etc.);
- (b) organising service teams so that they include staff who are able to communicate bilingually with the public (e.g. social services teams; staff of the authority's residential homes and care homes; education consultancy teams; advisory teams etc.);
- (c) offering language choice every time a meeting is arranged in advance;
- (ch) publicising the Council's policy of ensuring that it is the public rather than the officers who will exercise the choice as to which language is used at meetings of this nature;
- (d) ensuring, in those workplaces where Welsh speaking staff are not always available, that a bilingual officer can be brought in without delay to conduct a meeting in Welsh when necessary;
- (dd) ensuring that there are adequate bilingual officers amongst the staff of the various Services to make it possible to arrange for at least one Welsh-speaking officer to be present in every public meeting except those of which it is known beforehand that no one will be speaking Welsh in them. (Standards 30-34)

4. Arranging or Financing Public Events

- 4.1 If you organise a public event, you must ensure that, in promoting the event, the Welsh language is treated no less favourably than the English language (for example, in the way the event is advertised or publicised). (Standard 35)
- 4.2 If you organise a public event, you must ensure that the Welsh language is treated no less favourably than the English language at the event (for example, in relation to services offered to persons attending the event, in relation to signs displayed at the event and in relation to audio announcements made at the event). (Standard 36).
- 4.3 When you announce a message over a public address system at such events, you must make that announcement in Welsh first and then in English. (Standards 87 and 144).

5. Publicity, Advertising, Marketing and Displaying Information

Notices and Statements to the Press and Media

- 5.1 All notices, press releases and statements by the Council to the press and media will be provided in the working language of the media. (Standard 37)
- 5.2 Whenever public notices are placed in publications in Wales, they shall appear bilingually in English language publications and in Welsh only in Welsh publications. (Standard 37)
- 5.3 All notices, press releases and statements by the Council to the press and media published on our website will be provided bilingually. (Standard 37)
- 5.4 Any publicity or advertising material that you produce must be produced in Welsh and English except any such material included in Welsh only publications or displayed in Welsh activities, which may be in Welsh only. (Standard 37)

6. Information / Documents for the Public

Material for Public Use

- 6.1 Any material that you display in public must be displayed in Welsh and English, and you must not treat any Welsh language version of the material less favourably than the English language version –this means that both versions of the text has to be the same size, the same font, the same colour etc. It is possible to make an exception in some circumstances where using different colours to differentiate between the Welsh and English text is possible, e.g. if both languages are next to each other on a poster. Please remember to contact Eluned (eluned.mair.davies@conwy.gov.uk) or Nia Llwyd (nia.llwyd@conwy.gov.uk) to check if this exception is possible with your material. (Standard 38)
- 6.2 Any documents that you produce for public use must be produced in Welsh and English and they must be available and displayed at the same time. (Standard 40)
- 6.3 If you produce a document in Welsh and in English (whether separate versions or not), you must not treat any Welsh language version less favourably than you treat the English language version. This means that both versions of the text has to be the same size, the same font, the same colour etc and the Welsh version and the English version must include the same information. It is possible to make an exception in some circumstances where using different colours to differentiate between the Welsh and English text is possible, e.g. if both languages are next to each other on a poster. Please remember to contact Eluned (eluned.mair.davies@conwy.gov.uk) or Nia Llwyd (nia.llwyd@conwy.gov.uk) to check if this exception is possible with your material. (Standard 48)
- 6.4 If you produce a separate Welsh and English version of a document, you must ensure that the English version clearly shows that the document is also available in Welsh, and vice versa.

Please use the following wording:

On the English version, please include:

Mae'r ddogfen hon ar gael yn Gymraeg hefyd.

On the Welsh version, please include:

This document is also available in English.

You must include these sentences on every document / form that are produced as separate Welsh/English versions for public use. (Standard 49)

7. Forms for the public

- 7.1 Any form that you produce for public use must be produced in Welsh and in English. (Standard 50)
- 7.2 If you produce a Welsh language version and a separate English language version of a form, you must ensure that the English language version clearly states that the form is also available in Welsh and vice versa.

Please use the following wording:

On the English version, please include:

Mae'r ffurflen hon ar gael yn Gymraeg hefyd.

On the Welsh version, please include:

This form is also available in English.

You must include these sentences on every document / form that are produced as separate Welsh/English versions for public use.

(Standard 50A).

- 7.3 If you produce a form in Welsh and in English (whether separate versions or not), you must ensure that the Welsh language version is treated no less favourably than the English language version. This means that both versions of the text has to be the same size, the same font, the same colour etc and the Welsh version and the English version must include the same information. You must not differentiate between the Welsh and English versions in relation to any requirements that are relevant to the form (for example in relation to any deadline for submitting the form, or in relation to the time allowed to respond to the content of the form). (Standard 50B)
- 7.4 If you pre-enter information on a form (for example, before sending it to a member of the public in order for him or her to check the content or to fill in the remainder of the form), you must ensure that the information that you pre-enter is in Welsh on the Welsh version and in English on the English version. (Standard 51)
- 7.5 If separate Welsh / English versions of a document are given over the counter or in a one-to-one meeting, a Welsh version or an English version, or both languages will be offered. In such circumstances, there will be plenty of Welsh and English versions available, and they will both be clearly displayed at Council offices and reception areas. (Standard 38)

However, it is emphasised that publishing separate versions will be an exception to usual practice, and Council officers should attempt to ensure that all forms made available by their services are in a bilingual format.

- 7.6 If you're creating a form from scratch, then you're welcome to send it to cymraeg@conwy.gov.uk to ensure it conforms with the Standards.

8. Digital Platform

Websites

- 8.1 You must ensure that:
- (a) the text of each page of your website is available in Welsh and English,
  - (b) every Welsh language page on your website is fully functional, and that
  - (c) the Welsh language is not treated less favourably than the English language on your website (Standard 52)
- 8.2 On any website the Council is responsible for, there must be a way of seamlessly toggling from one language to the other. (Standard 55)
- 8.3 The interface and menus on each page of any website that the Council is responsible for, must be displayed in Welsh and English. (Standard 56)

Intranet

- 8.4 When you write a new page for the intranet, you will need to provide a Welsh version of that page as well. All pages on our intranet site must be available in both Welsh and English and can't be published unless both versions are sent to the Web Team. (Standard 121).

The Translation Service can help with translating the document – please contact cyfieithu@conwy.gov.uk.

- 8.5 There are Welsh in the Workplace pages on the intranet which provide information about services and helpful material in regards to promoting Welsh and assisting you to use your Welsh language skills. There are links to a number of useful websites and apps to help you to use your Welsh language skills too. (Standard 125)

Microsoft Teams

- 8.6 Did you know that you can use Teams in Welsh? Click on the settings and then general and you will see that you can change the Language of the app to Cymraeg (Welsh). This will change the interface to Welsh.
- 8.7 If you'd like to use the chat function in Teams, did you know that you can get a Translation of the message as well? Please don't use this function for anything official – we have a translation team on hand to help you with that.

Apps

- 8.8 All apps that we publish must function fully in Welsh, and the Welsh language must be treated no less favourably than the English language in relation to that app. This means that the text has to be the same size, the same font, the same colour etc and the Welsh version and the English version must include the same information. (Standard 57)

Social Media

- 8.9 When you use social media you must not treat the Welsh language less favourably than the English language.

This means:

- (a) You should either have separate Welsh and English accounts, or a bilingual account
- (b) Any messages posted on English only accounts must be posted on another Welsh only account at exactly the same time.
- (c) Any messages on bilingual accounts should be posted in Welsh first and then in English.
- (ch) If you have bilingual accounts rather than separate Welsh and English accounts, the name of the account must be bilingual as well, with the Welsh first and the English after.

(Standard 58)

- 8.10 If a person contacts you by social media in Welsh, you must reply in Welsh (if an answer is required). (Standard 59)

Videos

- 8.11 (a) Information Video

If you create a video in English, for public or internal staff use, which is an information video, e.g. introducing a new building such as the Coed Pella introduction video, information about recycling in the county or information about education etc, then you must also create a Welsh language version of it. You mustn't treat the Welsh language version less favourably than the English version so any text displayed must be displayed in Welsh and any audio heard must be in Welsh (i.e. English audio with Welsh subtitles isn't acceptable) for an information video.

- (b) Video 'interviewing' / 'chatting' with a member of staff / the public who don't speak Welsh

If you create a video in English, for public or internal staff use, which includes an interview or a chat with a member of staff / member of the public who doesn't speak Welsh, then you must also create a Welsh language version of it, however, in this scenario, you can include that clip on the Welsh version too with Welsh subtitles.

If you're not sure if your video needs to be entirely in Welsh or not, please contact Eluned Mair Davies, Welsh Language Promotion & Development Officer for advice – eluned.mair.davies@conwy.gov.uk (Standard 6)

Proposers are advised to consult local sources such as County Archives and historical societies prior to submitting proposals. Where special circumstances arise, these will be taken into consideration by the Council

When dealing with applications for planning permission to erect signs, the Council's Planning Services Division will encourage the applicants to erect Welsh signs, and will encourage developers to adopt Welsh names for new developments.

These badges/lanyards are an excellent way of identifying other members of staff who speak Welsh.

The Council is privileged to be part of the Work Welsh Scheme for staff who want to learn Welsh. Work Welsh is a programme designed to strengthen Welsh language skills in the workplace. The scheme is funded by Welsh Government, and has been developed by the National Centre for Learning Welsh. Work Welsh is a specific programme to strengthen Welsh language skills in workplaces across Wales. The lessons are available free of charge for Council staff. If you'd like to receive further information about our courses to learn Welsh, please feel free to contact Menna Morris, the tutor (menna.morris@conwy.gov.uk).

- 25.1 In accordance with the Welsh Language Standards, the Council will provide opportunities during working hours:
- (a) for employees to receive Welsh language lessons, and
  - (b) for employees who manage others to receive training on using the Welsh language in their role as managers.

This means that all Services have a duty to release staff to attend lessons regularly or allow them the time to self-study during work hours.

26. Human Resources

Staffing

- 26.1 In order for the Council to be able to serve Welsh speakers and English speakers alike without treating the Welsh language less favourably than the English language, the Council will make the staffing arrangements necessary to ensure that it has sufficient Welsh speakers who possess the appropriate communication skills to provide a full service through the medium of Welsh in those workplaces and those service situations where there is contact with the public in Wales. (A number of relevant Standards)
- 26.2 The staffing arrangements of each service will be subject to continuous review, in order to identify the priorities of each Service for addressing any bilingual skills deficits. (A number of relevant Standards)
- 26.3 In order to facilitate the use of Welsh, the Council will continuously collect information about Council staff's language skills in order to note the number of staff who can speak, read and write in Welsh in all services. The Council will do so by using a tool on the intranet. (Standard 151)
- 26.4 By continuously maintaining and analysing the above Audit, officers will be able to identify those workplaces and those posts for which the ability to speak Welsh is essential or desirable. The requirement may be identified as appertaining to a specific workplace, situations or team rather than a specific post. This will enable the officers to allocate the Authority's new posts and vacant posts into one of the following two categories:
- (a) Posts for which fluency in Welsh is essential because of their contact with the public; or for other reasons (e.g. translators; press officer, reception staff, officers who work with children, vulnerable adults etc).
  - (b) Posts for which fluency in Welsh or a knowledge of Welsh is desirable.

All new Council posts and all posts falling vacant and intended to be filled will be placed in one of these two categories.

In order to assist the officers and the appropriate committees to act in accordance with these staffing aims, the following general guidelines are given, based on what it is fair and reasonable for the public to expect:

- (a) Services will ensure that they have officers who are fluent in both Welsh and English in the following posts: switchboard telephonists; reception personnel; counter personnel.
- (b) In the Council's main offices and main workplaces, it will ensure that there are sufficient staff who are fluent in both Welsh and English. Services will ensure that they have an appropriate percentage of Welsh speakers among their staff, and ensure that they are specifically directed to provide a service through the medium of Welsh as required.

- (c) Heads of teams of officers who come into contact with the public will organise their teams in such a way as to ensure that their service doesn't treat the Welsh language less favourably than the English language.

27. Recruiting to Vacant Posts

27.1 When advertising a post, everything needs to be sent to the Translation & Welsh Language Service so that we can check the language designation of the job and translate the job description BEFORE you send the post to HR for approval to advertise the post.

27.2 These are the steps that you will need to follow:

- Prepare the Job-description and Job Advert using the correct templates (available on our intranet site).
- It's very important that you note the Welsh designation on the Advertisement and the Job Description - this is an essential element of the Welsh Standards. Noting Essential / Desirable is sufficient on the Person Specification, however on the advert, a further explanation is required in order to explain exactly what is expected, and, hopefully, attract more applicants. So, instead of only noting "Welsh is essential for this post", you could note e.g.
  - The ability to converse at ease with customers in Welsh is essential for this post.
  - The ability to converse at ease with customers and reply to simple correspondence is essential for this post.
  - The ability to conduct a simple conversation in Welsh is essential for this post.
  - The ability to give public presentations and prepare reports in Welsh is essential for this post.
  - The ability to conduct psychological assessments through the medium of Welsh and English and the ability to present written information in both languages is essential for this post.
  - We are looking for an individual who can both speak and write Welsh to a high standard in order to conduct interviews with the press and respond to technical correspondence.
  - The ability to write letters and minutes correctly in Welsh is essential for this post
  - The ability to lead activities for children and young people through the medium of Welsh is essential for this post
  - The ability to give instructions and advice in Welsh is essential for this post and the ability to write in Welsh is desirable.

Please feel free to amend the examples above so that they are relevant to the post you're recruiting to. (Standard 136A)

- Please fully complete the Welsh Designation Form and make sure that you note how many Welsh speakers you currently have in the team and use the Flow Chart to Determine Designation for a Vacant Post (Welsh essential or Welsh desirable) to reach your decision.
- Please note that it is very important that you use the correct templates/forms - if you do not use these, then we will have no choice but to send them back to you for you to amend.
- If you don't have Welsh copies of the advert / job-description, you'll need to arrange to get them translated by completing a Translation Request Form and sending the documents to cyfieithu@conwy.gov.uk.
- Please input the English text into the Welsh template before sending it to us.
- The translator will translate the documents and send them to you.
- Then, in order to approve your documents, and your chosen Welsh language designation, you will need to send the documents to cyfieithu@conwy.gov.uk:
  - Job Advertisement (Welsh and English)

28. Arranging Interviews

28.1 If the applicant has indicated on the application form that he wishes the interview to be conducted in Welsh, you will need to make sure you have a way of doing so. Ideally, the interview should be held in Welsh, with a panel who are all fluent Welsh speakers, but if a member of the panel doesn't speak Welsh, you will need to arrange for a simultaneous translator to be available - to do so, please phone the Translation Service on ext. 6081/6082/6080 or send an e-mail to cyfieithu@conwy.gov.uk. You will need to let the candidate know that the interview will be held through the medium of a translator. (Standard 139)

28.2 If you are interviewing for a Welsh essential post, please bear in mind that at least half of the questions need to be asked in Welsh, and if you don't speak Welsh, you will need to prove the language skills of the candidates to make sure they are able to speak Welsh.

Under NO circumstances should you recruit anyone to a Welsh essential post if they are not able to speak Welsh fluently (level 4 or 5). Ideally, the interview should be held in Welsh, with a panel who are all fluent Welsh speakers, but if the panel don't speak Welsh, you will need to arrange for a simultaneous translator to be available - to do so, please phone the Translation Service on ext. 6081/6082/6080 or send an e-mail to cyfieithu@conwy.gov.uk.

28.3 If the applicant has indicated on his application form that he wishes to receive correspondence in Welsh, you will need to send the letter inviting him to an interview, and any other correspondence in Welsh only.

28.4 Following appointing to a post, you will need to send any correspondence to the successful candidate in their preferred language

29. Announcements using audio equipment

29.1 When you make announcements in the workplace using audio equipment, those announcements must always be made in Welsh, followed by the English version. (Standard 144)

30. Complaints

30.1 In accordance with the Welsh Language Standards, we need to keep records of each complaint we receive in relation to the Welsh Language Standards. Please note therefore that it's important that any complaints about the Welsh language are recorded as 'complaints of a language nature' on the complaints system.
